Set up your current or new documents and presentations in Google Docs for you and your students:

How-tos

techEteens

1. Go to www.google.com

2. Click on "more" then "documents"

3. Log in or create new account using your email as your user name

4. Click on "create" to create a class assignment or presentation click on "upload" to import an files you currently have saved on